

2nd Annual MILLERS RIVER
PLEIN-AIR ART PAINT-IN and SHOW
with the Athol Public Library

Paint-In Workshop with Tom Kellner:
Saturday May 5, 2018, 9 am - Noon, in S. Royalston

Show: June 5-30, 2018
Opening Reception: Tuesday June 5, 5-7 pm

Drop off artwork on Thursday & Friday,
May 31 and June 1, 9:30 am - 5 pm

The Millers River Watershed Council and the Athol Public Library are co-sponsoring the 2nd annual Millers River Plein-Air (outdoor) Workshop and Show to increase appreciation of the river's scenic beauty and stimulate artistic growth.

---

The Details:

- Paint-In Workshop: Free! Just show up and bring your own materials. Check with instructor if you need materials. Outdoors, by the river near the Birch Hill Dam picnic area, off Route 68 in S. Royalston; dress appropriately.

- Show: Artworks must be plein-air in acrylic, oil, watercolor, ink or pastel; limit 3 images/artist; $5/ piece submitted. Ribbons will be awarded in each medium. Artist profiles should be printed to an 8.5x11 sheet of paper and dropped off with the artwork. All entries must be landscape related, showing some aspect of the Millers River, and be signed and ready to hang. Please plan to pick up artwork on July 2.

Plein Air painting by Bruce Dean

Questions?
Email Tom at
Tomkellner12@gmail.com